Like its sponsor, the John Deere Company, it is widely respected among its peers for its character and integrity, leading the way in innovation. Through the Birdies for Charity program, this event is responsible for raising more than 80 million dollars in charitable giving... right here in the Quad Cities.

And within the confines of the TPC at Deere Run is a not-so-well-known place, one that is home to a select group of self-labeled volunteer misfits who call themselves Grunts. They work tirelessly behind the scenes to insure this tournament goes off without a glitch (whatever that is). They can be found hanging out in their little clubhouse (my word), just off the fourth tee in THE GRUNT DOME (their word). While a completely separate band of working wizards, they are part of a larger group of more than 1800 volunteers, all instrumental in the success of this remarkable event. But the Grunt Dome is more than just a place. It embodies a spirit of dedication, support, and a 'can-do' attitude. The work ethic of these Grunts sets the tone for the passion and perseverance that make this tournament the 'little train that could'. Hop aboard my John Deere Gator as we take a peek inside the ropes to see what makes this place and these people so special. Kids will enjoy lifting the flaps to find Easter eggs, see baby animals, and help Johnny Tractor plow and plant. For the Love of Nature is an intimate collection of essays written by a man whose love of nature dates back to his earliest days. These travel stories span a range of global ecosystems, with an emphasis on Alaska, a site of great delight for the author. Here is a love letter to the natural world that begins around the ponds, forests, and meadows of a childhood and journeys through a lifelong career as an educator keen on sharing not only passion for the living parts of our planet, but respect and knowledge, as well. Marty Dodge focuses on situations where he had the opportunity to share his informed appreciation for the complexity and beauty of actual places. He describes adventures where, as a college instructor, he led student groups through the Florida Everglades, Costa Rica, Belize, and Alaska. And his adventures didn't stop when his working life did; Dodge's post-retirement travel was just as vigorous, and his documented tributes include spirited descriptions of visits to Nepal, Chile, the western United States, and, as ever, his adored Alaska. Say goodnight to all the animals on Merriweather Farm with Johnny Tractor and Allie Gator as the two friends get ready for bed.
