However, her holiday spirits are shattered when a distress call from a sinking fishing vessel calls the Coast Guard into action and puts her husband's life on the line once again. With that decision made and no travel plans on the horizon, one would think that this holiday should be a breeze, right? Not even close. First, Blackwell and Lisa butt heads over who's the best choice to throw Jennifer's baby shower. As infamously strong-willed as Blackwell is, she's soon rattled to find out that Lisa is no pushover. In fact, she's hellbent on proving that she can stand up to Blackwell with ideas of her own...in ways that might leave the reader howling. Second, there's Cutter and Daniella, who are headed straight for a break-up due to Daniella's insistence that they move in together Will they be kissing under the mistletoe after weeks of not speaking? After Blackwell has a heart-to-heart talk with her daughter, readers might be surprised by the outcome... Third—and perhaps most dire in this book—is the appearance of Ava Kent, Jennifer's abusive and cunning drunk of a mother, who suddenly crashes back into Jennifer's life in ways that are so corrosive and toxic, it sends an already fragile Jennifer literally to her breaking point. In Annihilate Them: Holiday, expect all the romance, love, sexy times and laughs that you've come to expect from Christina Ross, but also expect much more drama, especially when it comes to Ava.
